Theme

K: Mr. Suits, it's almost Christmas. I'm so excited!

S: Kiki, calm down. We have a lot of things to do . decorate the Christmas tree, bake the Christmas cookies, put up the Christmas lights, send Christmas cards

K: Blah, blah, blah! Mr. Suits, Christmas is all about magic, joy, and love. - Tell me one thing you love about Christmas.

S: Hm. I don't know! I guess I like Christmas cookies?

K: Awesome! Let's bake some traditional Czech gingerbread.

S+K: Tada!

S: Yum, yum, yum. Delicious! . Ah, I think I'm getting into the Christmas spirit. Let's decorate the tree.

K: Yay! Oh, here's my favorite Christmas ornament, do you like it?

S: Kiki, that's me in a Santa Clause costume!

K: Cool, right?

S: Sure! I'll add these twinkly lights!

K: Wow, beautiful!

S: Yes. Let's hang our Christmas stockings!

K: Stockings? Why?

S: So Santa can put presents in them. In Canada we open presents on Christmas Day, the 25th of December. Fun, fun!

K: In Czechia, the presents go under the tree. And we open them on Christmas Eve, the 24th of December.

S: Kiki, are you telling me there are more ways to celebrate Christmas?

K: Of course.

S: But which way is the right way?

K: All of them! It's about love and joy, remember? . And, there are people who don't celebrate Christmas at all.

(S) SCROOGE: Humph. Christmas Family He is just lazy.

K: That night, Mr. Scrooge had a strange visitor.

(K) PAST: I am the Ghost of Christmas Past. Look!

(S) SCROOGE: That's me when I was little... And my sister. I miss her. . I loved her but I love money, money, money more.

K: Then another spirit appeared.

(K) PRESENT: I am the Ghost of Christmas Present.

(S) SCROOGE: That's Bob Cratchit's family... His son is very ill. . I feel sorry for them but I love money, money, money more.

(K) FUTURE: I am the Ghost of Christmas Yet to Come.

(S) SCROOGE: Cratchit's house again? ō Why are they crying? Where is the sick boy?

(K) FUTURE: That is not all. Look!
